TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (WOFL FOX 35) - The Florida Department of Law Enforcement sent out its one millionth sex offender e-mail alert Tuesday.

The Florida Offender Alert System, which was launched last year, sends e-mail alert notifications when registered sexual offenders or predators move into a neighborhood or any other location designated by the user. Subscribers can also choose to track an offender or predator and receive notifications when he or she moves.

Since the system was launched more than 55,000 subscribers have signed up. The one millionth alert marks a milestone in providing timely and valuable information to Florida residents.

The Florida Offender Alert System is offered free by FDLE. It is available at www.flsexoffender.net.
